1. As hard as the story of Noah and the Flood might be to wrap our minds around, it points us to the severity of our sin and the grace of God towards undeserving sinners. Have you gotten on board the “Ark” today?
2. While there are many questions people have about the Ark and the flood, what is the main point that we see in this story? Is sin slightly serious or substantially serious?
3. Who is someone you know who is still not on board the Ark? Pray for that person!
