

Rain, Rainbows, and Redemption – Genesis 8:1-9:17

Good News: The Rainwaters _____ (Genesis 8)

- When we say that God _____, we mean that God acts in accordance with His _____
- Noah is shown to be a new _____ in this “recreation” scene

Greater News: _____ is Coming (Genesis 9:1-17)

- Noah is a _____ of Jesus Christ – He points us to Jesus in many ways
  - o Both _____ with God
  - o Both save their _____
  - o Jesus alone provides us with _____ before God
- The _____ Covenant is an _____ covenant

1. We see a fundamental difference in the value of human life in our world today. In Genesis, how do we see human life valued? How should we view humanity today?
2. While some view the story of Noah and the Ark in a negative lens, we see that it screams of God’s faithfulness and grace. How does this story encourage you?
3. Who is someone you know who is still not on board the greater Ark? Pray for them!
